Minutes

Jesse Gunter

- Storage Unit in Golden for all the CW Stuff for easier access for events.
- We could use it for winter storage for kids kayak gear too.
- Looking into pricing for Units 5x5 or 10x10 around Golden off I-70.
- Migrating Website providers (skip) bad for email, templets are bad too.
- Contact Wild Apricot first before deciding if changes can happen.

Pete Bellande

- BaileyFest-Denver Water cannot promise water, Insurance and lease signed.
- Still need volunteers, would like to get them in for free and have a list for them.
- Add Foxton run to events for those that can't run Bailey section.
- Jackson Kayak has a boat for the raffle and Confluence Kayak will have Demo Boats.
- Holding 3rd Safety class low water on the Arkansas and looking into another on the Colorado River.

Gail Tubbs

- Non-members volunteer or attend training camp, we have had both, give them a discount?
- Fall Dinner Free for members? Hard sell, so we don't tell everyone we made a ton of money.

Dick Alweis

- Instruction update:
- Tom Gram is doing a slalom class for 6 instructors

- o 6 instructors for recertification Aug 29-Sept 2)
- o Couldn't get Mat Dumoul for the Colorado Weekend.
- o Have 2 instructors for Arkansas Weekend to teach roll.

Karen Moldenhauer

- o Online store, Karen doesn't mind running it, but the board wasn't super excited about making this happen.
- o Too much work and keeping track of sales.

Daniel Lundberg

- o Kestrel response to a question from the internet, emailed her response to the board for their review about river access.

Brooke Smith

- o Poudre weekend recap-no camping at this event but was well attended with about 54 on water.
- o Ark Weekend-dogs will be allowed, there is a noise ordinance starting at 9:50pm; send people downtown to party late.
- o And there is a problem getting port-a-potties.
- o CO river weekend-got a group site for 35 people
- o 2019 Poudre Weekend-reaching out to Apple Acres for camping, should we keep it as a one-day event because camping sites are hard to get. Or move this event to the Roaring Fork Valley. Have hot springs out there and lots of runs to choose from.

Nicole Harty

- o Outdoor Retail Show-should we have representation? In 2 weeks, talks in Lower Downtown and Confluence Kayaks, no one doing tents/

Finale

Q & A Time: anything that needs clarification or was not covered?

- o July 19th another Thirst Thursday Happy Hour, New Image has given us a lot of beer, Kurt from Confluence Kayak will talk about basic boat technology. We bought nacho plates for people.
